

The diagram features a central gray shape consisting of two triangles meeting at a point. To the left of this shape, the number '3' is written. Above the shape, the text '2012' and '711' are visible. To the right, the year '2009' is present. The diagram is filled with numerous small, scattered symbols, including slashes (/), dashes (-), and parentheses (()), as well as some larger, fainter symbols like 'ã', '8', and 'E' on the far right.
