

The image is a wide banner with a central title and two columns of text on either side. The central title, '面向全国招收艺术特长生的院校及专业', is written in a large, bold, black font. The text on the left and right sides is organized into a grid-like structure, with dotted lines separating the sections. Each section contains a list of universities and their corresponding art majors, with the university names in a smaller font and the majors in a larger font. The text is in a traditional Chinese font, and the overall layout is clean and professional.
